FROM THE MINISTER Chris C. Nettles

I thank Claudia Gray and the Elders for finding help to lead worship today. My week long bout with the flu or whatever it was chilling. I had sustained high temp and a bad cough. I felt like someone had zapped my ability to just stand up. In the midst of my illness Dorotha called seeking help for Morris. His strength was gone and they didn't know what to do. Fortunately they were able to start him on Hospice and find 24 hour in home care. But today we need to pray for Dorotha, Morris, Nancy, John and family. Morris and Dorotha have served FCC with their strong faith guiding the church since 1947. Now they need their church family to help them. Please join me in giving thanks for all those who have encouraged our faith.
